If you've been laid off, we'll help you!

If you have been laid off due to a lack of work, you can get help to find a new job through Trygghetsfonden TSL. We are a service based on an agreement between LO and Svenskt Näringsliv. Therefore, it is completely free of charge for you.

We can offer you one of Sweden's best job coaches who based on your particular situation supports you on the way to a new job, start your own company or maybe start studying. The job coaches know how to find jobs that you may not have thought of yourself and how to write a personal CV. You can also get support in contacts with authorities such as the Swedish Social Insurance Agency and the Swedish Public Employment Service. And it may be possible to get a short training in order to get a certain job. If you have reached the age of 40, there is also the possibility of financial compensation, known as severance payment.

It is your needs that guide us. When you are contacted by an advisor from Trygghetsfonden TSL, you will learn more about what the support can mean for you.
